Notes and Definitions:

Data is based on the fall admission cycle.

New Graduate 'International' students are grouped with 'Non-Resident' students for historical years as data was not snapshotted to that level of detail.

ADMIT TYPE

First-Year Undergraduate: A freshman undergraduate student.

New Undergraduate Transfer: A student known to have previously attended a post-secondary institution (outside of the University of Arizona) at the undergraduate level and earned 12 or more transferable college credits post high school.

New Graduate: A student who holds a bachelor's degree or above and has applied, admitted, or enrolled at the post-baccalaureate level.

RESIDENCY

Arizona Resident: A student who qualifies for in-state (Arizona) tuition as defined by the Arizona Board of Regents (ABOR). For specific details on the criteria for Arizona residency classifications, please visit the following link:

<https://registrar.arizona.edu/personal-information/requirements-resident-status>

Non-Resident: A student who does not qualify for in-state (Arizona) tuition.

International: Replaces IPEDS terminology of 'Nonresident alien'; A person who is not a citizen or national of the United States and who is in this country on a visa or temporary basis and does not have the right to remain indefinitely. This does not include students who are studying online from another country.

ADMISSION PIPELINE

Applied: A student who submitted an application for undergraduate admission at the University of Arizona for the fall term.

Admitted: A student who applied and was granted an official offer to enroll for the fall term at the undergraduate or graduate level at the University of Arizona.

Yield: A student who applied, was admitted, and enrolled for the fall term at the undergraduate or graduate level at the University of Arizona.
